

AMUSEMENTS

SAVOY THEATER.

The new program introduced at the Savoy yesterday is one that is sure to win its way into the good graces of the amusement loving people of Phoenix. Manager Broughton has nothing but the best of licensed pictures in his theater, and the new program put on yesterday and which will run today and tomorrow is the best yet, consisting of: "The Vagabond," a Gaumont and must be seen to be appreciated; "The Maniac," a comedy drama by Lubin which Florence Lawrence and Arthur Johnson, the two foremost motion picture artists of America, are seen in to good advantage; "A Southern Soldier's Sacrifice," a vignette, telling a beautiful story of a brother's love and sacrifice, and "Love Among the Hills," a biograph, and to know that it is a biograph is enough.

Mr. Roberts is singing, "In the Garden of My Heart," with spotlight, and "Give My Regards to Mabel," illustrated. There is class to that man's voice and the way he uses it is the comment of all who have heard him. It is a pleasure to listen to a song

THE COLISEUM.

The Levy circuit presented Manager Reeves a holiday gift this week in one of the best bills shown for some time. Trisela and Robinson are a little weak in the opening act but finish strong with several pretty changes. Mangle and Gallan, hoop manipulators and jugglers are artists in their line. Van and Crawford finish a good bill with an act in which facial distortion is stronger than art, yet is good without.

THE WIGWAM.

The program for tonight is as follows:

"Trapped." A thrilling story showing a false friend who, because of jealousy, tries to place a crime of guilt upon his innocent chum.

Song, "No One Like You," Miss Ethel Hall.

"Pathe's Weekly" showing fifteen very interesting subjects.

"The Forester's Plea." A great western dramatic production which contains strong sensational action and a consistent well told story.

Illustrated song, "I Miss You Honey All the Time," Miss Ethel Hall.

"What Will Be, Will Be." A comedy incident that all will enjoy.

Manager Mullen has invited the members of the Royal Order of Moose and their ladies to visit the Wigwam tonight and enjoy the excellent program which he has prepared for them.

AN ARTICLE BY PRESIDENT TAFT.

President Taft's important article in the January Century will give a forcible view of the political and moral benefits to be derived from "The Fading Arbitration Treaties" of the United States with England and France. The paper will be, in effect, an appeal to the senators to ratify this epoch-making step in the international policy of this country. Included with the article will be a reproduction, in color, of Sorolla's portrait of the president, painted in the White House during the second visit of the Spanish artist to this country.

Germany will be the next European country to be plunged into the chaos of a general election. January 12 has been fixed as the date of selecting a new parliament.

Newton D. Baker, who on last election day was elected mayor of Cleveland by the large plurality of 18,000 has already been spoken of very seriously by Ohio democrats as a candidate for governor to succeed Governor Harmon. A number of Cleveland democrats have been active in the various cities of the state recently and are trying to persuade the democrats of Ohio that this is to be the natural sequence of Baker's victory. Baker and his friends, however, insist that he will serve out his term as mayor and will not think of the governorship. His term does not expire until December 31, 1912.
